

PORTRAIT POETRY

I am (write the name of your character) _____

My eyes are (use a simile to describe your eyes) _____

My body is (use two adjectives to describe the position of your body) _____

My heart is full of (use three adjectives) _____

I am going (write where you're going. It can be an actual destination like a city, or more of a dream/hope like "to find something more for my life") _____

As I travel, I see

(one thing you see) _____

(one adjective to describe what you see) _____

(one adjective to describe what you see) _____

My heart is now full of (use three adjectives) _____

As I travel, I am

(one action you are doing) _____

(one action you are doing) _____

(one action you are doing) _____

My heart is now full of (use three adjectives) _____

As I travel, I feel

(one simile to describe how you feel) _____

(one adjective to describe how you feel) _____

(one adjective to describe how you feel) _____

My heart is now full of (use three adjectives) _____

As I travel, I hope for

(one thing you hope for) _____

(one thing you hope for) _____

(one thing you hope for) _____

This final stanza can be either the same or different from the first stanza.

I am (write the name of your character) _____

My eyes are (use a simile to describe your eyes) _____

My body is (use two adjectives to describe the position of your body) _____

My heart is full of (use three adjectives) _____