

The Phillips is announcing an array of enhancements to our membership benefits and experiences this season. Phillips Travel has evolved, too! Three exclusive experiences anchor our newly reimagined program: Phillips in the Field, Circles Tours, and Phillips Abroad! Launching again this fall, members of varying levels can look forward to domestic and international trips, as well as unique opportunities to meet Phillips Collection senior leadership and curators at art fairs, exhibitions, and on the road. We are thrilled to share with you our upcoming season of travel.

CIRCLES TOUR Philadelphia, PA

NOVEMBER 14-17, 2024

Join us for a captivating weekend inspired by our summer special exhibition, Multiplicity: Blackness in Contemporary American Collage, and seize the opportunity to see a major survey of one of its featured artists, the celebrated Mickalene Thomas. On Friday, explore Mickalene Thomas: All About Love with a Barnes Foundation curator, followed by a thoughtful conversation between Thom Collins, Barnes Foundation Neubauer Family Executive Director and President, and Jonathan P. Binstock, Vradenburg Director & CEO, about the philosophy of collecting and sharing those collections with the public.

Throughout the weekend, get behind-the-scenes access with expert-led tours of the Philadelphia Museum of Art, the Mural Arts scene, and visits to a private collection, as well as the celebrated artist Dingda McCannon's studio.

Don't miss this opportunity to see Philadelphia as you've never seen it before!

Program and accommodation to be arranged by the Phillips; travel to be arranged by participants. $3,000 Single; $4,275 Double Occupancy
